Give Your Audience More Than Motivation...

Charly is highly coveted for her hip, savvy, business oriented approach to life and love —and her speaking engagements are no exception!

A dynamic and engaging personality, Charly uses every event as an opportunity to connect intimately with her audience, address their specific concerns and teach them real strategies they can apply to their lives before they even walk out the door.

Charly's Unique & Interactive Format

Have a specific concern you'd like Charly to address?

When Charly is booked to speak, there's a good chance that you'll gain the insight you're looking for. There are two chairs on the stage for a reason and that's because once Charly finishes her opening address... it's all about you, the participant.

Charly's intimate Q & A format affords participants the benefit of sitting one-on-one with Charly for a powerful mini-consultation. At the same time, her ability to bring any personal matter back to the audience at large means everyone grasps effective strategies they can engage in their own lives. More importantly, her forum teaches people how to identify patterns at the core while reinforcing the value of learning from each other's experiences. Charly creates a shared experience that leaves audiences wanting more.
